Message from our Campus Principal

Over the last week, classes have been moving into assessment modes as students demonstrate their learning progress over the term. Assessments have changed over the years, and certainly since we were all students, and they are no longer all tests done in silence. In the current era of education, we understand that students can demonstrate their learning whilst collaborating with others, exploring concepts and generally enjoying what they are doing.

Nonetheless, at times children do feel the pressure of "CAT Weeks" and for some this is difficult to manage. Please ensure you are communicating with us about the experiences of your child so that we can
